Notes on Classes at the Towson YMCA:

1) The classroom is in the Campbell Building, adjacent to the main building. Go to the front desk and they will let you in (or give you keys). This room isn't used very much and may require a few minutes of straightening up to make it presentable for students.

2) We have three lanes 'reserved' for our classes. If we have a small class we should offer to use only 2, because there are times when we have larger classes that we will need to ask for a little more space. They are normally pretty reasonable, but if we aren't using space they will take it back.
